HIST! AND THEN SOME!! BIG SENSATION—ALMOST

Council Scented Deep Plot to Sell Borough Property.

DR. KIRK'S NEW ROLE

Instead of Producing Excitement, Causes Intense Disgust by Calmly Explaining Away Thrilling Mystery of a Hoisting Chain.

Bellefonte Council had a near sensation at its regular meeting on Monday night. For a time the atmosphere of Council chamber was highly charged, suppressed excitement attending the proceedings and everybody wondering in which direction the wicked finger of scandal would point. For a period of at least two minutes it appeared as if Council had unearthed a plot hatched by persons unknown to sell borough property and pocket the proceeds Councilman Grimm scented the plot and publicly stated what he had heard. Councilman Musser tossed a chip or two onto the fire. Councilman Judge fanned the blaze, and it seemed as if something just had to happen.

An inventory of borough property at the water works, prepared by Borough Engineer Meyer, prompted Councilman Grimm to inquire whether there was any other statement with which the new one might be compared.

"We ought to know, because —"

That was as far as Councilman Grimm got.

"Yes," promptly spoke up Councilman Musser, "I am informed that a hoisting chain belonging to the borough that cost $40 was offered for sale on the streets a day or two ago for $15."

"Yes," broke in Councilman Judge, "I understand that a machine for tapping pipes has disappeared."

President J. C. Harper, who should be presiding over Tammany's Board of Aldermen in New York instead of pottering away his time with a little village Council, expanded his chest to the fullest limit, stared up and down either side of the table at which his colleagues were seated and then—coughed. It was a chilly cough. It seemed to be the forerunner to some announcement that was destined to "lift the lid."

"Ha, ha," chuckled Councilman Kirk, his levity grating harshly on the wrought up nerves of his colleagues. With all eyes instantly turned upon him, Councilman Kirk gently stroked his beard and remarked:

"I can tell you all about the hoisting chain."

His remark cooled the atmosphere as if somebody had tossed a cake of ice upon the table.

"It was this way," continued Dr. Kirk. "Some time ago a certain firm did some work here but failed to finish the job. We had to finish the work and I told the water superintendent to keep the hoisting chain, which the company had left behind. I thought it would at least partly reimburse the borough. Later a representative of the company was here. The water superintendent asked him if he might keep the hoisting chain and subsequently told me that it had been given to him by the company's representative. That's all there is to the mystery of the hoisting chain."

Dr. Kirk leaned back with a self-satisfied smile. He had appeared in a new role and the experience was rather novel. Instead of looming up as a sensation producer here he was squelching a sensation. The explain-and-forget spirit seemed to become suddenly popular.

"About the machine for tapping pipes", spoke up Councilman Musser, "it is out at the water works; it's out there, all right. I saw it out there."

His explanation was greeted with a sigh of relief on the part of Councilman Judge. All hands were glad that it would not be necessary to appoint an investigation committee to run down the scandal and, quite naturally, were correspondingly happy.

Having successfully grappled with so much threatened trouble, Council readily accepted a more pleasing proposition, one submitted by the Civic Improvement Society of Bellefonte. This was to bear part of the expense of purchasing six garbage cans, of an improved type, the same to be placed on our streets. The cost of the first can is $15. After this has been purchased other cans may be made by home talent, although on each a royalty of $2.50 must be paid. Council agreed to pay one half the cost of the first can. If it meets all expectations other cans probably will be made.

H. C. Quigley and Joseph L. Montgomery appeared before Council and asked that the borough furnish free 80,000 gallons of water, twice each week, for the proposed swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. Councilman Kirk figured out that this would cost the borough about $320 a year. Mr. Grimm opposed the proposition unless the swimming pool would be free to all and not limited to Y. M. C. A. subscribers. Council finally decided to let the matter go over for two weeks.

Council formally received and approved a statement showing receipts and expenditures, accompanied by a check for $371.79, from Borough Solicitor J. Thomas Mitchell. Later bills for extra services traveling expenses and hotel for Solicitor Mitchell, amounting to $320, were approved and ordered paid.

Ex-Sheriff W A. Ishler filed an application for reappointment as collector of water rents for the borough. Action on it was postponed.

Borough Auditors Curtin, Lukenbach and Walker formally notified Council that they were in session and asked that the borough books be turned over for examination. Owing to the recent constitutional amendments, President Harper expressed doubt whether the councilmanic year ended in March or in December. He asked Solicitor Mitchell to give an opinion in the matter, pending which the books will remain in the possession of Council.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Mary Harris Becomes the Bride of John McCoy.

On Wednesday evening, promptly at 6 o'clock, a very pretty and quite stylish home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Rachael Harris, on the corner of Spring and Curtin Streets, Bellefonte. When the hour arrived quite a number of guests from here and also out of town, assembled in the handsomely decorated parlor, and to the strains of the beautiful wedding march, played by Mrs. J. H. Robb, the bridal party made their appearance. The bride was Miss Mary Harris and the groom was John McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy, of Bellefonte. The maid of honor was her sister, Mrs. John VanPelt, of Spangler, and the groom's best man was Edmund Blanchard. Dr. George Fife, of Philadelphia, who is the supply in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

The attractive and pretty bride was gowned in white satin, and wore a long flowing bridal veil. In her hand she carried a boquet of roses. The maid of honor was attired in pink satin veiled in chiffon. She carried a boquet of roses. The flower girl was Miss Katherine Allison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Allison, of Bellefonte.

Following the wedding there was an informal reception, at which the happy couple received many hearty congratulations, coupled with wishes for their success and future happiness. This was followed by a wedding supper. The bride and groom left for a wedding tour, after which they will return to Bellefonte and be at home at the residence of the bride's mother.

The groom is one of our rising young business men, who for several years has been associated with his father in the manufacturing of charcoal iron at Linn & McCoy's Iron Works. He is also going into the coal business, which will aid materially in bringing warmth and comfort to the home. The bride is one of Bellefonte's charming young ladies, possessing those qualities that will make a good and true wife. As a testimonial of her worth, and the confidence placed in her by her friends, she was the recipient of a large number of handsome and costly presents. Among these was a mahogany dining room suite and a Turkish rug, gifts from her brothers. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, the groom's parents, gave her a chest of silver, silver service and solid silver candelabra.

On Monday evening the groom gave a stag party, at the Bush House, to a number of friends, all of whom had an excellent time. Among the guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Morris and Miss Margaret Wood, of Overbrook; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery, Lambertville, N J.; Miss Mame McCabe, of Washington, D. C.; Joseph Harris, of Baltimore, Md.; Charles Harris, of Washington, D. C.; George Harris, Wheeling, W. Va.; Guy Harris, Dayton, Ohio.

NO CHARITY TICKET FOR "UNCLE JAKE" WOODRING

Can't See Any Humor in Queer Item in Auditors' Statement.

IS KIDDED BY CRONIES

Popular Commissioner Saved County Big Bill For Costs by Sending Pauper to New York—Auditors' Statement Gets it Twisted.

County Commissioner Jacob Woodring is justly indignant because of some unfair criticism aimed at him in the last few days. It is all because of the wording of an item in the Auditors' Statement and the interpretation placed upon it by a few persons. The criticism has been prompted by a desire to have some fun at "Uncle Jake's" expense, although up to this time he has been unable to see the joke. The item in question is so worded as to give the impression that Commissioner Woodring received $10 from the county for a charity ticket of some kind or other. The words "charity ticket" do appear, hence the indignation of "Uncle Jake."

The facts are these: Some time ago a foreigner had one of his legs badly injured at the lime stone quarries. He was treated at the Bellefonte hospital, but the injured leg never fully healed and the man became a burden upon the county. He was costing the county $4 a week at the poor house and the County Commissioners naturally tried to find some way in which to shift the burden to the tax payers of some other section of the country. Finally the man said that if he could get to New York he would go away and stay away.

The County Commissioners very properly figured that it would be cheaper for the tax payers of Centre County to ship the man to New York than to keep him here for an indefinite period at $4 per week. Accordingly he was provided with a railroad ticket to New York, which cost about $10, and the expense to the county stopped right there. When the item was entered on the Auditors' Statement it was worded "Jacob Woodring, charity ticket, $10." It was so published before "Uncle Jake" discovered it. Some of his old cronies, however, were quick to notice it and at once started in to pretend to criticise him for getting $10 from the county and then charging it up to charity.

They have been having so much fun out of it that they have kept the joke going, and meanwhile "Uncle Jake's" temperature has been steadily going up. "Uncle Jake" says that he positively refuses to see the joke, and that he wants it understood he didn't get $10 in charity, doesn't want any charity and furthermore, that he can lick the fellow who started the story that has caused him no end of annoyance.

Plot to Kill Taft.

A statement by John Steele, now under arrest for the assassination of Chief of Police John T. Sullivan, of Spokane, Wash., on January 5, that he knew of a plan in Eastern anarchist circles to assassinate President Taft, was overheard last Friday night by police spies through a partition in a cheap rooming house in that place.

Steele repeatedly boasted to his companions of the plot against Taft, which was part of his conversation. He told the group around him that he was high up enough in anarchistic circles to know "that—Taft would be killed as soon as he left Washington after Congress closed." Telegrams were sent East warning the secret service of the plan to kill the President.

Special Gift to Orphanage.

Bishop Garvey, of Altoona, has had printed and prepared for distribution among the various parishes in the Altoona diocese, a list of subscriptions and contributions to the orphanage at Cresson. On the list of St. John's church of Bellefonte is credited with $160.45; St. Michael's church at Clarence, $10.00; St. Mary's church, Snow Shoe, $64.75; State College, $40.00, and collected by the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction company, $300.67.

Centre Allotted Scholarship.

The five McAllister Scholarships awarded each year in the Pennsylvania State College to the five counties showing the highest ratio of students to the population of the county have been assigned to the following counties: Cameron, Centre, Dauphin, Mifflin and Wyoming. The county superintendent and high school principals in each county will make the appointments by competitive examination before June 1st.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Fiftieth Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Kunes, at Blanchard.

Seldom, if ever, has any home in Centre County been the scene of a happier event than was the case at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Kunes, of Blanchard, who on Tuesday, February 28, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. A priceless asset as they find themselves advancing in years is the realization that they are surrounded by a host of warm and admiring friends. Highly respected and possessing the confidence of all who know them, Mr. and Mrs. Kunes may rightly be classed among those residents of Centre County who are an honor to the community in which they live.

It was but natural that the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kunes should be especially interested when it became known that they were about to celebrate the fiftieth milestone in their journey of happily married life. All who were invited were only too glad to be in attendance upon the enjoyable occasion, the arrangements for which had been nicely planned by loving sons and a daughter, Wesley and Clarence Kunes, of Blanchard, and Mrs. George W. Gardner, of Jersey Shore. All told, sixty-six persons were in attendance at the hospitable Kunes home and heartily congratulated the bride and groom who plighted their troth a half century ago.

Happiness reigned supreme in the home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. On a table in the parlor red, white and blue candles were so arranged as to spell out the words, "Fifty Years." Flags intertwined with bunting and flowers told in eloquent silence of Mr. Kunes' splendid record of service in the Civil war. Also emphasizing this was the presence of a large number of old comrades, all of whom were glad to be present and testify to their esteem for one who had endangered his life that the Union might be saved.

It was after his marriage that Mr. Kunes went out in defense of his country, serving with credit and finally returning home with an honorable discharge and the knowledge that he had done his duty as a loyal patriot. Returning [illegible] settled down to home life and now he is not only blessed with devoted children but he and his wife have the happy satisfaction of finding themselves surrounded by grandchildren.

After receiving the congratulations and best wishes of the numerous guests Mr. and Mrs. Kunes led the way to the dining room, where was prepared a feast that was in keeping with the significance of the occasion. Tables heavily laden with things splendidly cooked and daintily served presented a sight long to be remembered. It needed no second invitation to the guests to be seated and all did full justice to the feast. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kunes, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kunes and family, of Blanchard; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gardner, of Jersey Shore; Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson, Captain and Mrs. James A. Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. William Kunes, Mr. and Mrs. Danse B. Kunes, Mr. and Mrs. John Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. C. Allison Williams, Mr. and Mrs. David Kunes, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Packer, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Clark, Mrs. Jacob Glossner, Mrs. David DeLong, Mrs. Charles A. Kunes, Mrs. Matilda Bechdel, Misses Sadie, Mary and Essie Spangler, David Smith and Milton Kunes, all of Blanchard; Campbell D. McCloskey and Uriah Kitchen, of Beech Creek; Mr. and Mrs. John Bridgens and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kunes, of Mill Hall; Mrs. Ritter, of Jersey Shore.

To Mr. and Mrs. Kunes "The Republican" extends congratulations, expressing the hope that they may live to see many more years that are as happy and well blessed as have been the fifty years of married life just ended.

Died at Julian.

Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock, Mrs. James Hall died at her home at Julian. She had been ill for quite a long time with something like Bright's disease. She is survived by a husband but no children. She was 64 years old, and a lady who was held in the highest respect by all who knew her. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the United Brethren church. Interment in the cemetery at Julian.

St. Patrick's Day.

St. Patrick's Day, March 17, when the natives of the Emerald Isle commemorate and honor the great saint who miraculously converted them to Christianity, will be fittingly celebrated by the sons and daughters of Ireland living in Bellefonte. Our town has a great many residents of Irish birth or descent and the green will be conspicuously displayed on that day.

Young Lady Improving.

The Lock Haven Democrat says that Miss Martha Bates, of Pine Glenn, Centre county, aged 14 years, a niece of Mrs. James C. Smith, of Lock Haven, was brought here Wednesday of last week over the N. Y. C. railroad, and taken to the hospital, where she was immediately operated on for appendicitis. She was accompanied by her parents and Dr. Flegal, of Karthaus. Her condition was regarded as serious, as the disease had progressed too far before the operation was performed. A telephone message on last Monday stated that the young lady was getting along nicely.

The Post Office Situation.

Congress adjourned on Saturday of last week with no definite action having been taken in regard to the Bellefonte post office. After having recommended the appointment of Samuel H. Williams Congressman Barclay withdrew the name of Mr. Williams and on Thursday recommended that Postmaster Harter be reappointed. Mr. Harter's name was sent to the Senate on Thursday but Congress adjourned without it having been confirmed. No action can now be taken until Congress convenes in special session, on April 4th.

John Breon Injured.

Contractor John H. Breon, of Axe-Mann, was quite seriously injured on Thursday night, last, between 9 and 10 o'clock. He was going home from church and, when near William Stuart's barn, he was struck by the wheels of a buggy and thrown to the ground. The accident was the result of two young men, in separate buggies, who started to race out the pike at breakneck speed. Mr. Breon was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to his home. Dr. David Dale of Bellefonte, who was quickly summoned, found two gashes in his head, also his back was injured and his body badly bruised. He is now sitting up and getting along as well as could be expected.

American Women.

MISS MARY A. WILSON

Death Removes Another Old Resident of Bellefonte.

Miss Mary A. Wilson, sister of the late Mrs. Curtin, wife of Governor A. G. Curtin, died early Monday morning at her apartments at the residence of Mrs. Louise Harris, on Allegheny Street. She had been in feeble health for about one year, and during the winter contracted bronchitis. She, however, was recovering from that disease when she recently had the misfortune to fall in her room and break her hip. From that time she began failing rapidly and when the last moments of life came they were peaceful, her passing away being without pain or suffering.

The deceased was a daughter of the late William I. Wilson, one of the pioneer physicians of Centre County, who for years practiced medicine at Potters Mills, and only a few years ago died in Bellefonte, at the advanced ago of 90 years. Miss Wilson's age was 82 years and 5 months. She was born at Earlystown, this county. A number of years ago she came to Bellefonte, making her home here ever since. About two years ago, she, with three sisters, took rooms in the Harris home. Since that time Mrs. Moyer has passed into the great beyond, and with the death of Miss Wilson only two of this prominent and distinguished family remain. They are Mrs. Laura Elliott and Miss Alice Wilson. The deceased was truly a good, Christian woman, whose entire life was spent in helping to lighten the burdens of others. She was always doing something that met with the approval of Him who said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." From childhood she had been identified with the Presbyterian church and was always found in her pew when able to be out. She loved to sit and listen to the word of God as it came from the sacred desk. She had hosts of warm friends in Bellefonte and her death is being greatly lamented. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, from the Harris residence. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

An Old Railroad Ticket.

Conductor Edward Zerbe, of Tyrone, who is in charge of one of the passenger trains on the Pennsylvania railroad, running between Tyrone and Lock Haven, last Thursday collected what proved to be the oldest railroad ticket picked up in many years. When his train arrived at Milesburg a lady got on board and presented a ticket dated March 25, 1871. Conductor Zerbe was elated. He learned that the ticket had been given the bearer by another person. It was in a splendid state of preservation. Some time ago Conductor Farrell collected a ticket from a lady traveling from Woodland to Philipsburg. It bore the date of 1885. Railroad officials say that every now and then they come across a ticket purchased years ago and then for one reason or another laid aside and forgotten. The ticket collected by Conductor Zerbe is believed to be the oldest that has been found in recent years on the entire system of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Orchard Demonstrations.

Spring demonstrations of model orchards are being held in Centre and other counties this month, under the supervision of State Zoologist Surface and his staff of assistants. On Monday, last, a demonstration was held at the orchard of Newton C. Neidigh, near State College. Yesterday a demonstration was held at the orchard of Elizabeth D. Green, near Bellefonte. On Saturday, next, the fine orchard of C. P. Reese, at Snow Shoe, will be used for a demonstration meeting. The John I. Gray orchard, at Stormstown, will be used for a similar meeting on Wednesday of next week, March 15. On April 14 a demonstration meeting will be held at the orchard of George R. Mock, near Philipsburg.

Special Meetings at State College.

Graham Taylor, D. D. LL. D., founder and resident warden of the Chicago commons, a Christian settlement, spoke to the people of State College, on Sunday, at a series of special meetings. Dr. Taylor is president of the Chicago school of civic philanthropy; is lecturer in the University of Chicago; professor of social economics in the Chicago Theological seminary, and an author of many noted works. He is associate editor of Survey and is a close friend of J. Pierpont Morgan and Otto B. Barnard.

Local Option Defeated.

In the House, at Harrisburg, the local option bill met with defeat on Monday, last. The vote on the subject followed a motion to place the bill on the calendar despite the negative recommendation of the committee. This was defeated, 76 for to 121 against. There was a heated debate before the vote was taken.

Bud Thompson, of Martha, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Monday.

A son was born on Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burlingame, at Syracuse, N. Y. Mrs. Burlingame will be recalled as formerly Miss Margaret Burnet, of Bellefonte.

Patrons and fellow employes at the Central Railroad station could not account for the unusually cheery disposition that possessed Frank Steele on Tuesday morning, until it was learned of the arrival of a daughter at his home.

The declamatory contest at the Bellefonte Academy, on Friday afternoon of last week, for the prizes offered by W. S. Furst, Esq., of Philadelphia, proved to be close and interesting. The judges were Rev. Fred W. Barry, Clement Dale, Esq., and W. D. Zerby, Esq., three men especially well qualified to make the awards. The first prize was won by Leonard Grisbaum, of Pottsville, who spoke on "The University, the training camp of the future," while the second prize was awarded to Rutherford Reiter, of Pittsburg, whose subject was, "Lasca."

Captain W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, was a passenger east on Monday morning, his destination being Philadelphia, where he attended the annual meeting of the State Veterinary Association. The meeting was held at the University of Pennsylvania on Tuesday and Wednesday, with headquarters at the Windsor Hotel. The banquet was served on Tuesday evening at the Leonard Pearson Hall. Captain Fry avails himself of every opportunity to keep abreast of his chosen profession in order that he may be thoroughly posted in combatting the various diseases with which our domestic animals afflicted.

It is with no little pleasure that we note the improved condition of Miss Roxanna Mingle, daughter of Captain and Mrs. A. C. Mingle, who has been so critically ill from pneumonia during the last ten days. At one time her condition was such as to cause much anxiety among the friends of the family. The knowledge that she was clinging to life by such a slender thread awakened the sympathy of the community and when, finally, she took a turn for the better the news was received with unfeigned joy by her host of friends. She has been steadily continuing to improve since that time and now there is every reason to believe that her recovery is assured.

Henry Nelson Drowned.

In our last issue we noted the fact that Henry Nelson, a colored man in Philipsburg, had been missing. On Monday the body was found in the Moshannon Creek, a short distance from the town. There was no evidence of violence, thus no inquest was held.

After the man had been missing Mrs. Peter Smith insisted that the Creek be searched. This was done by Mrs. George Rider, Miss Virginia Nelson, daughter of the deceased, and who spent most of the day along the creek. The discovery, however, was made by Nichols Perozzoli, Charles Morton and Paul Dayton. Interment was made on Wednesday.

"The Thief."

"The Thief" tells a story of how a woman stole large sums of money to buy clothes in order to make herself attractive to the eyes of her husband whom she deeply loved. The second act of this great success is claimed to be the most startling series of scenes ever presented on the stage. The chief thought, apparently in the mind of the American woman today is to dress well. To do this many of them have to steal. It is around this thought that "The Thief" was written. This is a high class show and will be in Bellefonte on Saturday evening, March 18.

Melvin Lingle Again Injured.

Melvin Lingle, aged about 36 years, a resident of Blanchard, was injured about two years ago by the falling of a mine at the operation of the Scotia Mining Co., at Bear Swamp. His hip was broken in a way that a permanent recovery is very doubtful. He had recovered sufficiently to be able to walk fairly well, when on Saturday, last, he had the misfortune to fall near his home and tear several ligaments in the location of his former injury. He is now able to get about the house with crutches.

Will Hold Supper.

The members of the junior and sophomore classes of the Ferguson Township High School will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the I. O. O. F. hall, at Pine Grove Mills, on Saturday evening, March 18. Refreshments of all kinds will be sold. These will include ice cream, cake and home-made candies. The Big Indian Chief Powhatan will appear in his wigwam, so don't miss seeing him. The proceeds will be devoted to securing a library. A large attendance is desired and a good time is assured.

Major John Richards, of Provincial headquarter at Philadelphia, will be here for special meeting on Monday night, March 13. During his visit to Bellefonte he will make a thorough inspection of the work, also the corps books. The street service will begin at 7.30 P. M. Hall meeting at 8. All are welcome.

Twenty-one and Ten.

March 1st marked the thirty-first birthday anniversary of the Lock Haven "Express," one of the newsiest and best newspapers that comes to "The Republican" office. For an inland town daily newspaper the "Express" is a hummer. That it may have many more years of prosperity is the earnest wish of an admirer.

Huston's Sentence Stands.

Friday afternoon the Superior Court at Williamsport, filed into the court room, after two days in consultation, handed down 154 decisions and adjourned to meet in Scranton on Monday.

The most important case decided was that of Architect Joseph M. Huston one of the famous state capitol cases, and the superior court sustained the court below and affirmed that court.

The opinion was an exhaustive one by Judge Porter and covered thirty-nine typewritten pages. The court holds that the question of the meaning the defendant intended his certificate to impart, was submitted to the jury in a manner of which the appellant has no reasonable ground for complaint, and the specifications of error are overruled.

Huston was the last of the fourteen men indicted in the State Capital scandal face to face a trial court.

Huston was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the state in connection with the furnishings of the capitol and was sentenced to a term of not less than six months nor more than two years in prison and to pay a fine of $500. If Huston follows the other men convicted in the same case he will take an appeal to the state supreme court and enter bail pending a decision. Should no appeal be taken it will become necessary for Mr. Huston to deliver himself to the Sheriff of Dauphin county.

The magnificent capitol was erected at a cost of $13,000,000 and the state charged that it was defrauded out of about $5,000,000 in the furnishings. The state made no charges of fraud in the construction of the building. After the capitol was completed Huston was engaged by the board of public grounds and buildings to design special furniture and decorations, and it is in connection with this work that the alleged frauds were committed.

Of the fourteen men indicted two—Former State Auditor General W. P. Snyder and James M. Shumaker, superintendent of the board of grounds and buildings, are serving terms in the penitentiary; two died pending an appeal from the conviction, one went temporarily insane and others were acquitted.

The state also brought civil suits against the indicted men for the recovery of nearly $5,000,000 and the suits were settled for a total of about $1,300,000. The amount each man involved in the scandal contributed to this total was never made public, despite the fact that the house of representatives of the legislature asked for the information.

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label of alum baking powders must show the ingredients.

The regular annual meeting of the Schenck Cemetery Association was held at the Furnace school last Saturday, and business relative to the care and improvement of the cemetery during the coming summer was transacted.

Dr. O. W. McEntire last week accompanied Mrs. A. W. Gardner to Philadelphia where she will undergo treatment for her eyes. Mrs. Gardner has been almost totally blind for a number of years and it is hoped that she may find relief from her sore affliction.

B. Paul Swartz, who had been a resident of the township for many years, shipped his household goods and stock to the South several weeks ago and is now located in sunny Florida. In a letter to a friend he states that he is well pleased with the county and climate and intends making the peninsular state his home. He will engage in agricultural pursuits. He promises his friends a nice treat of oranges as soon as the harvest begins.

John B. Holter and William O. Wagner were the last two members of the Local Protection Legion to receive the dividends on their insurance taken out five years ago, and when they expected to receive the magnificent sum of $250. Their checks arrived on Sunday and were considerably less than the amount originally promised, but not guaranteed, being only $45.26 each. They paid premiums in the five years amounting to $130.

Frank Williams, son of Isaac R. Williams, has purchased the bakery, confectionary and ice cream store of Peter Robb, Jr., and has already taken possession of the same. Frank will at once take up the baking of home made bread as well as supply our people with pies, cakes, etc. and the public may feel assured of a first class article. Frank is a young man full of hustle and the right amount of "git-up-and-git" and will doubtless make a success of his business venture. Mr. Robb has decided to go back to the farm and in the spring will return to his former place along Marsh Creek. Mr. Robb has been a good citizen and we are loath to see him go, but a few more years of farming and he will be ready to build himself a handsome brick home in Howard.

The school directors of Howard borough and the township are considering the advisability of jointly erecting a suitable building for high school purposes. The borough schools have become pretty well filled up and this condition crowds students into the high school before they are ready for the high school curriculum and the time of the principal is divided among too many grades of students. The borough directors do not feel that the borough alone is able to build and maintain a fully equipped high school and in this manner the expense would be cut in two. The township does not have a high school and has been sending a great many of its students to the borough. Prof. Etters, county superintendent, thinks the plan a good one and recommends that Marion township also be let into the agreement and thus three districts would be provided for at a greatly reduced cost of maintenance. Not having a high school and a suitable building in which to establish one the township directors seem to be much in favor of the plan, and it is believed by many that the day is not far distant when we shall see its consummation.

The public schools of this place last Friday received one of the famous Philadelphia museums, which has been placed in the library and is now being studied by the pupils. The museums are furnished by the State and this one was secured through the efforts of Representative J. Calvin Meyer. The exhibits are put up in a handsome mission cabinet and each series of displays is neatly packed in a case, the cabinet holding nine of these cases and a large apartment at the bottom for the more bulky specimens. The cases contain specimens of cocoanut, rice, sheep (wool), flax, carbons, corn, cotton, silk, beverages. Each article is shown in all the stages or processes of growth or manufacture from the seed or raw state to the finished product, and in addition all the by products. The rice and corn exhibits being carried out so far as to show puffed rice and corn flakes, which are two of the important articles of American breakfasts. In addition to these cases there are a number of specimens of the various ores, among them being bauxite from which aluminum is secured. There are also many samples of the better grades of wood and a large number of photographs, showing manufacturing and farming scenes all over the world. The students are very much interested in this embryo museum and the study of the several articles contained therein has been a fascinating one for many of the high school students. It is well worth one's while to visit the school room and spend an hour or so in looking over this interesting collection.

Charley is a hustler and with the training he got from Lyman Emerick here during the last year he will take the ox by the horns from the very start. Several weeks ago we noticed that the editor of "The Republican" was wondering why William Burnside didn't think of matrimony during these long winter evenings. Now we don't know whether Billy has taken the hint or not, but we do know that he is having a nice time, at least, averaging two parties a week in Buffalo Run valley. From all we are able to learn, he is the leader in the sport. If Billy has his mind on "things matrimonial, or getting married," as Dr. VanTries puts it, we don't know where he could find better stamping ground than on some of the fine farms in the valley that are badly in need of landlords.

On Monday night, March 3, the room of Half-Moon Lodge, No. 845, I. O. O. F., was a scene of activity, the festivities continuing from 7.30 in the evening until quite late (or early) in the morning. Members of the clan in all their glory were there from Pine Grove Mills, State College, Millheim, Bellefonte, Curtin, Tyrone, Port Matilda and also a lone representative from Boston, Mass. The cause for all this was the initiating and conferring of degrees on a class of candidates by the degree team of Allegheny Gateway Lodge, of Tyrone. Those who were there say they never saw the work done better. Later the degree master from Tyrone called on all of his men for speeches, each responding with a three minute talk, after which Ira Burkett, of Half-Moon Lodge, called on all visitors from other lodges. Jolly Capt. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, kept one eye on the dining room while he was speaking, which prompted him to remark that it was the longest three minutes he had ever experienced. Once in the dining room he ate so much as to embarrass his friend, William Goss, also of Pine Grove. But there was more than plenty for all and each one greatly enjoyed the feast. It was four o'clock in the morning when the closing ode was sung and the visitors departed, leaving Half-Moon Lodge with the distinction of being the second largest in membership in Centre County, Bellefonte leading.

James B. Stere, expert fisherman and noted hunter, and I. J. Stere, of Klondike fame, wandered out for the head of Wallace Run, on the Allegheny mountains, to prospect for bear, fish and gold. After wandering about in the mountains all day they wandered home again in the evening. After they arrived here they wondered where they were. Jim said they were on Wallace Run and Jack said they were on Benner Run. For information they asked Billy and he said it was plain to be seen that they had not been to either place. They have come to the conclusion that the only thing to do is to make another trip and find out just where they were.

DELIGE MURDER TRIAL COST COUNTY $2,082.63

Other Escapades in Which Negro Figured Swells Total to $4000.

PROF. POND'S BILL $500

Asks This Amount for Chemical Analysis of Delige's Clothing and Fees For Expert Testimony—Commissioners Refuse Payment.

The murder of Mrs John Baudis, at Scotia, in October, last, and for which Bert Delige will be hanged in the County jail yard on Tuesday, April 25, has resulted in a cost to the County of at least $2,082.63. Of this amount $600 was paid to the lawyers aiding the prosecution and also defending Delige. The Pinkerton Detective Agency, which worked up the case against Delige, received $215.81. The witness fees in the preliminary hearing and the trial amounted to $450.15. This does not include a charge of $500, made by Professor G. C. Pond, of State College, who made a chemical analysis of Delige's clothing and other articles, and also appeared as an expert witness during the trial. This was the largest single charge made in the entire case. It has been rejected by the County Commissioners as excessive and payment deferred until there is an adjustment.

There will be several additional items of cost to the County before the murder case will be entirely disposed of. One will be the cost of the execution of the prisoner. Another will be the cost of a day and night guard over him until the day he is hanged.

Itemized, the expense forced upon the County by the murder, was as follows :

G. C. Pond, chemist	$ 500.00
N. B. Spangler, assisting District Attorney	300.00
W. D. Zerby, counsel for Delige	150.00
E. R. Chambers, counsel for Delige	150.00
Pinkerton Detective Agency	215.81
Dist. Atty. Runkle, expenses	45.27
E. R. Chambers, expenses	10.50
Garman House, boarding jury	53.00
J. H. Wetzel, map and surveys	78.90
Twelve jurors, three days, each	54.00
Joshua Folk and John Trafford, guards	75.00
Witness fees, (trial)	379.13
Witness fees, (hearing)	71.02
Total	$2082.63

The total cost of the unfortunate affair to the County will in all probability be something over $2500. Just what will be allowed Dr. Pond for his services and fees as an expert witness for the prosecution can not be forshadowed. It is not improbable, however, that the amount allowed Dr. Pond, together with the cost of boarding Delige, maintaining day and night guards over him and the expense incident to the hanging will amount to several hundred dollars.

The foregoing schedule of items of expense does not include the cost of boarding Delige, which from time of arrest to the date for his execution, April 25, will be 192 days, which at 40 cents a day, makes a charge of $76.80. The cost entered up in the above schedule for guards at the jail covers the period to January 1, only. Each guard receives $1.50 per day, a total of $3. At this rate the cost for guards, alone, from January 1 to the day for the execution, will be $252. Should the County Commissioners be forced to allow Dr. Pond's claim for $500 the total cost of the murder, including preliminary hearing, trial and execution, may run up to $2,800 or $3,000.

This, however, is not the only expense forced upon the County by Delige as the result of his numerous scrapes. The exact cost to the County resulting from his murder trial, in January, 1906, is not known. The witness fees in that case, however, amounted to $237.62. There were many other items of expense. A hearing before Squire Keichline, in November, 1904, in which Delige was charged with trifling with an officer, entailed witness fees amounting to $44.18. At the April term, 1904, Delige was tried on a charge of assault and battery, the witness fees in the case amounting to $74.63.

All told, Delige has succeeded in burdening the County with costs amounting to approximately $4,000.

Hen Coop Robbed.

On Saturday night, about 11 o'clock, theives went to the chicken coop of Mrs. Nan Miller, at Coleville, and after prying off the lock they stole six chickens and left two for seed. People out there say that the chickens never left Coleville, and that sometime the truth shall be revealed. Why these thieves should have selected a poor widow to rob seems to be a mystery, and the follows who did it are "bad medicine."

Giving Blood For Money.

Thirty strong, athletic looking men called at the Jefferson hospital at Philadelphia on Friday in answer to an advertisement in the morning newspapers offering a reward for a pint of human blood needed for a weakened patient. Nearly all of the volunteers deserted, however, after an uneasy wait for examination in an atmosphere of ether and surroundings in which surgical instruments were prominent.

The blood will be tranfused to the patient as soon as the chief resident physician of the hospital chooses the subject. Whoever is chosen, it is said, will be given $50.

MEAT PRICES GO DOWN

An Increase of 14 Per Cent. in February Stock Receipts.

An increase of 14 per cent. in the supply of live stock received at western markets last month compared with the figures for February, 1910, tells a story of a replenished meat supply at reasonble prices.

A year ago an acute shortage developed, which resulted in sending prices of cattle, hogs and sheep during March up to the higest prices in a generation. The top quotations at the Kansas City stock yards in March, 1910, were $10.95 a hunderd pounds for hogs, $9 for cattle and $10.25 for lambs. Friday's prices were about $4 lower for hogs, $2 lower for cattle and $4 lower for sheep and lambs. For the first time in about eighteen months packers were able to buy hogs at an average of less than $7 a hundred weight.

Sheep were selling about a year ago at the highest prices ever recorded. Values now are the lowest of the last five years and sheep are relatively the lowest class of meat animals on the market.

Cook Pork Thoroughly.

Cases of illness sometimes occur from eating uncooked or insufficiently cooked pork which is infested with a microscopic parasite, commonly known as trichina or fleshworm. An average of one or two per cent. of the hogs slaughtered in the United States are infested with this parasite, which transmitted to human beings, causes serious illness and sometimes death. All persons are warned by the United States department of agriculture not to eat pork, or sausage containing pork, until after it has been properly cooked.

Events Recalled By Quaint Old Papers

While rummaging about through some old papers a day or two ago, our hand fell upon a newspaper clipping that attracted our attention. A glance down the column was as if some one had pulled aside a curtain, revealing names of personages prominent and active in the affairs of Centre County in the olden days. Equally beautiful and interesting was the fact that the article in the clipping told of how these same residents of Centre County had so liberally responded with relief, in the shape of money and grain, when famine-stricken Ireland and Scotland sent out their call for help in the late Forties That appeal for food, voiced by countless scores of starving men, women and children, touched the heart of Americans everywhere and the response was prompt and generous. Centre County, let it always be recalled with pride, responded nobly. Public meetings were held in Bellefonte, committees to receive money and other contributions were appointed and everything possible done to help in the world-wide movement which had as its inspiration a desire tohelp those in distress.

To those of our olders readers a reading of the clipping will at once recall names of citizens of the county in the period of 1847. Many have long since passed over the border line, although a few still live and recall with lively interest the stirring incident in question. The clipping, which is self-explanatory, is of date of March 3, 1847, and reads as follows:

At a meeting of citizens of Centre County, convened at the Court House, this day, for the purpose of taking measures to afford aid to the suffering people of Ireland and Scotland, Gen. James Irvin was called to the chair, assisted by the following vice presidents: William Baird, Sr., George Buchanan, James Alexander, Dr. William J. Wilson and Hamilton Moore, and with B. Rush Petriken and Roland Curtin, Jr., as secretaries.

The object of the meeting was stated by Col. James Burnside, after which the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions and a plan of operation for the consideration of an adjourned meeting in the evening. Col. Burnside, E. C. Humes, Rev. John Tonner, James Armor, James Gilliland, Esq, J. K. Shoemaker and Tasker K. Knox.

On motion of H. N. McAllister, Esq., it was resolved that the ladies are specially requested to participate in the benevolent objects of this meeting.

Adjourned till 4 o'clock.

At 4 o'clock the meeting reassembled, when Col. Burnside, on behalf of the committee, made the following report, which on motion of William Ward, Esq., was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the awful and heart-rending distress of the people of Ireland and Scotland calls for united action from all the human family, and as it will be the pleasure, as it is the duty, of all Christian men to contribute to their relief; therefore, be it

Resolved, That General James Irvin, H. N. McAllister, E. C. Humes, A. G. Curtin and James Burnside, Esq., be appointed a Central Committee, whose duty it shall be to correspond with the several township committees, and to make all the necessary arrangements for the transportation of flour and wheat to the charge of some proper person in Philadelphia, for the above object, as soon as the navigation opens:

Resolved, That the following named committees, in each borough and township of Centre County, be appointed to solicit subscriptions, either in grain or money, for this humane purpose:

Resolved, That the emergency demands instant and effective action, and that we recommend to the different township committees to call township meetings, appoint sub-committees in each school district, and to make personal solicitation from every man who is able to contribute.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Central Committee, when the collections are made, to publish the amount of the same in the newspapers of the county, the manner in which they have been forwarded, together with such other information as may be of interest.

Resolved, That the township committees be requested to report to the Central Committee on or before the 25th of March the amount and quantity of contributions and the places in which grain and flour have been stored.

The Central Committee will inform the chairman of each township committee of the several places on the canal where provision may be deposited for transportation to Philadelphia, by a boat to be procured for that purpose.

H. N. McAllister moved that the meeting proceed to contribute such relief in money or grain as the several individuals feel able to give and supported his motion by an eloquent and feeling appeal to the audience.

James McManus followed with a neat and appropriate speech in favor of the motion, which was unanimously adopted.

The Rev. G. W. Natt made an affecting appeal, calling on all to contribute and that liberally.

The chairman followed, calling on the farmers to contribute because they were much benefitted in a pecuniary point of view by the high price of grain, and, therefore, out of their abundance, they should give liberally and cheerfully.

Subscriptions in money and grain to the amount of $500 were taken, when the meeting adjourned.

(The names of the several committees appointed are given just as they appear in the clipping. In one or two instances they may be incorrectly spelled. Next week we shall publish the appeal for contributions issued by the Central Committee and also the response made by the several boroughs and townships in the County—The Editor.)

Court Proceedings.

Comm. vs. William S. Reese, indicted first count, desertion and non-support of wife; second count, desertion and non-support of child; prosecutrix Lizzie Reese. The case is from Philipsburg. Defendant moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the Justice of the Peace had not made return to Court according to law. District Attorney moved the Court for a nolle prosse, and the County to pay the costs, which was granted, with leave to bring a new action.

Comm. vs. James Roberts, indicted for malicious mischief. Prosecutrix Mollie Herman. The case is from Philipsburg. Defendant plead guilty.

Comm. vs. Charles Metzler; charge, aggravated assault and battery; prosecutor Herman Hoover. The defendant waives the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty. His counsel made an argument to the Court for leniency and suspension of sentence, presentiug a petition of citizens of Clearfield to the Court asking for suspension of sentence and give to the young man another chance. The prosecutor assented to the request. The case grows out of some trouble at the time the Clearfield Fire Company went to Philipsburg to assist in extinguishing the fire there recently. The Court suspended sentence on condition that the defendant pay the prosecutor's expenses and all the costs.

Sealfoss Brothers vs. Isaac Finburg, being an appeal. The plaintiff not answering in court when called a compulsory non-suit was entered.

J. B. Lucas vs. J. W. Wagner, being an appeal. This is an action brought to recover on a prop contract, the amount owing by the defendant to the plaintiff being in dispute.

Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $127.52

Comm. vs. C. V. Wagner, prosecutor G. G. Hutchinson, General Agent of the Agricultural Department of Penna. Indicted for selling misbranded commercial feeding stuff, in three counts. This case is from Bellefonte and the agent, a Mr. St. Clair, took samples of some cotton seed meal which the defendant had for sale on May 24, 1910, taking it out of four different packages and mixing it, then taking a sample which he subsequently shipped to the State chemist and leaving a like sample at the defendant's store. The goods were found by the chemist not to contain the nutritive values as branded and more fibre matter than branded. The defendant having bought the goods from a firm in Memphis, Tennessee, where the same were branded as to contents and nutritive value, which brand and analysis is given by the Tennessee firm the chemist found incorrect and that the goods were not in value as represented. This action was brought under the new Feed Act of Pennsylvania of 1909, making it an offence to misbrand feed stuff and to sell it for something other than it actually is. The defendant's counsel moved the Court to quash the indictment for several reasons, among them being the unconstitutionality of the act, and at the close of the case moved the court for compulsory non-suit. Both motions were overruled by the Court and the case submitted to the jury. The defendant, of course, relied upon the representations of the manufacturer and the analysis, and sold the goods on the representations of the manufacturers, but the goods being found not to consist of that which it was represented to be, the defendant is technically guilty. Verdict guilty as indicted.

The grand jury made their final return and were discharged. Their return in substance being that they had passed on eighteen bills of indictment, found fourteen true bills and ignored four, and reporting further that after careful inspection of the county buildings, that they were more than pleased with the beautiful, convenient and endurable improvements to the Court House. The grand jury room being so situated and in such a place that the business can be executed with dispatch, and recommend the improvements continued by completing the grounds between the Court House and the Jail and by putting the walk in proper condition. Further reporting that they found the Jail needed repairs to the plastering, the floors in many places being in bad shape, and that the railing should be repaired or a new and higher railing be erected and, in fact, a general over-hauling and the building put in suitable and sanitary condition.

Henry Lowry vs. Louisa Lane, being an appeal, the defendant by her counsel confessed judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $100.66, with stay of execution for six months.

Ernest Levy vs. Foster Weaver, being an appeal. The case is from State College and is brought to recover a balance of an account claimed by the plaintiff, while the defendant contends that the plaintiff was fully paid for services, and, in fact, a little overpaid. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $12.

John Snavely vs. L. M. Royer, being an appeal; settled.

John McCartney vs. M. D. Kelley, trading as Kelley Brothers, being an appeal. Settled.

Prayers Answered.

Through continuous prayer and faith Mrs. Margaret Cerefoss, of Beaver Falls., claims that she was given the divine gift to read the Bible. Mrs. Cerefoss is 63 years old and had never learned to read or write. She was a woman of religious tendencies and always had a wish to read the Bible.

She prayed continuously for the gift and one day following a prayer she picked up her Bible and read the Book of St. John. She now reads any part of her Bible with fluency, but cannot read anything else, not even a newspaper.

The story of the divine gift was told by her son, Robert Cerefoss, at a cottage prayer meeting.

Had Joke on Cronies.

John VanPelt, who lives at Barnesboro, and who is well known in Bellefonte, recently played a good joke on some of his cronies over there. John and a number of friends are accustomed to meet every day or two and play a friendly game of "cinch." A few days ago John went to the Barnesboro bank and secured fifty one dollar bills. These he placed in a bag, which had been filled almost to the top with straw. He then took the bag to the place where he knew a game of "cinch" was in progress. Every now and then he opened the bag and took out one of the dollar bills. When he had the curiosity of his companions fully aroused, he casually left open the bag, so that all might see that it was apparently full of greenbacks. Then, when all hands were worked up to a high tension as to what he was about to do next, John idly picked up the bag, threw it over his shoulder and returned to the bank. There he deposited the money. His action gave rise to sensational rumors that he had endeavored to "break the bank of Monte Carlo" in Barnesboro.
